Gathering Hymn Our God, We Sing and Celebrate (Tune #722 – O Christ, Your Heart, Compassionate)

Our God, we sing and celebrate! Your grace to us is clear!
For we recall your faithful love for all your people here.
We've worked together, yet we know it's not the things we've done,
But you, who give us life and hope in sending us your Son.

Lord Jesus, in this broken world, you teach us how to heal,
And in a world where pride abounds, you call your church to kneel.
Amid the hate, we're called to love; amid the fear, to pray.
You call us to live differently; transform us every day!

You give us gifts to be your church; we follow as you call.
Here some are teachers, others preach, to speak your truth to all.
Some reach to help the sick and poor, while some are called to lead;
Yet by your Spirit, we are one, in word, in prayer, in deed!

How easy to look back and see your graceful, constant care,
And yet we're called to look ahead, to grow, to serve, to dare!
What is your will in this new day? God, help us pray and search,
For as we seek to walk with you, we are your faithful church.

Prayer of the Day

Children's Time

First Reading: Genesis 32:22-31

Returning to the home he had fled many years before after stealing his brother's birthright and his father's blessing, Jacob wrestles all night long with a divine adversary who ultimately blesses him and changes his name to "Israel," a name that means "he wrestles with God."

The same night he got up and took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. He took them and sent them across the stream, and likewise everything that he had. Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket; and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. Then he said, 'Let me go, for the day is breaking.' But Jacob said, 'I will not let you go, unless you bless me.' So he said to him, 'What is your name?' And he said, 'Jacob.' Then the man said, 'You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with humans, and have prevailed.' Then Jacob asked him, 'Please tell me your name.' But he said, 'Why is it that you ask my name?' And there he blessed him. So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, 'For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life is preserved.' The sun rose upon him as he passed Penuel, limping because of his hip.'

L: The word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Hymn - You Stop Me in the Darkness

1. You stop me in the dark - ness, half - way a - cross my ford.
 2. Be - hind me night is loom - ing, a lone - ly, fear - ful choice;
 3. All that which I would rath - er for - get, you make me see,
 4. Well then, here I must wres - tle and cling to you, O God,

I can - not flee for - ev - er, nor find my peace re - stored.
 but you who are be - fore me, you have my broth - er's voice.
 the fraud that I com - mit - ted, my lies, and treach - er - y.
 de - mand - ing that you bless me des - pite the path I trod.

5. I need no longer flee from myself or you but dwell
 securely in the knowledge
 I met my Penuel.

6. Now I have seen your face, Lord,
 and fought in your embrace.
 So let me limp on, wounded,
 relying on your grace.

Psalm 121

Refrain:

Sing the Lord's praise in the as - sem - bly of the faith - ful.

L: I lift up my eyes to the hills—
from where will my help come?
My help comes from the Lord,
who made heaven and earth.

C: Refrain

L: He will not let your foot be moved;
he who keeps you will not slumber.
He who keeps Israel
will neither slumber nor sleep.

C: Refrain

L: The Lord is your keeper;
the Lord is your shade at your right hand.
The sun shall not strike you by day,
nor the moon by night.

C: Refrain

L: The Lord will keep you from all evil;
he will keep your life.
The Lord will keep your going out and your coming in from this time on and for evermore.

C: Refrain

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 3:14—4:5

The writer of this letter continues his instruction of Timothy, his younger colleague in ministry, by emphasizing the importance of faithful teaching despite opposition.

But as for you, continue in what you have learned and firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it, and how from childhood you have known the sacred writings that are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that everyone who belongs to God may be proficient, equipped for every good work.

In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I solemnly urge you: proclaim the message; be persistent whether the time is favourable or unfavourable; convince, rebuke, and encourage, with the utmost patience in teaching. For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound doctrine, but having itching ears, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander away to myths. As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully.

L: The word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Verse

Congregation:

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, Lord to whom shall we go? You have the words of e - ter - nal life: Al - le - lu - ia!

P: The holy Gospel according to Luke, the 18th chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

Gospel: Luke 18:1-8

Jesus tells a parable of an unjust judge who is worn down by a widow's pleas. Jesus is calling God's people to cry out for justice and deliverance. For if an unethical judge will ultimately grant the plea of a persistent widow, how much more will God respond to those who call.

Then Jesus told them a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart. He said, 'In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor had respect for people. In that city there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, "Grant me justice against my opponent." For a while he refused; but later he said to himself, "Though I have no fear of God and no respect for anyone, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice, so that she may not wear me out by continually coming." And the Lord said, 'Listen to what the unjust judge says. And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them? I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?'

P: The gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

Sermon

Hymn of the Day ELW # 763 My Life Flows On in Endless Song

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen

Prayers of the People

After each petition, the pastor will say "God of grace" and the congregation will respond "hear our prayer."

Sharing of the Peace

P: The peace of Christ be with you always.

C: And also with you.

All are invited to share a sign of peace with those around them, as we recognize the image of God in each other.

Invitation to Communion

Lamb of God

Communion is distributed

Directions for Communion: Any adult or child who believes that Christ is present in this meal is welcome to participate. At the Pastor's direction, you are invited to advance to the communion rail through the centre aisle, commune in groups, and exit back to your pews through the window aisles, depositing your used wine/juice vessel in the silver bowl at the head of each window aisle. If you choose to remain in your pew to take communion once all group communing at the rail has ended, please raise your hand to make yourself known and the pastor will come around with bread, followed by the communion assistant with individual glasses of wine and grape juice. Lighter red grape juice is located in the centre ring of the tray.

Flowers are placed on the altar in praise and thankfulness to God for our congregation, the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada and the good and fruitful ministry of our Good Shepherd Women.

Today is our 65th Anniversary Celebration: Our church is celebrating its 65th anniversary today! We hope you can stay after the service for a special birthday cake and a continued time of celebration during our fellowship coffee time.

Welcome and Thank you! It is our privilege to welcome Bishop Kathy Martin, Bishop of our BC Synod, as our special guest on this special day, and we thank her for preaching and helping us celebrate our milestone.

Make a Praise Appeal Offering! We are also taking a special collection today for the ELCIC's Praise Appeal in honour of the women of our congregation. Designated envelopes are available on the usher's table. If you didn't come prepared today to make a special offering, you can do so anytime before the end of the month, either in a designated envelope or online marked as "Praise Appeal Offering" in the description line.

"Moving Towards a Waste-Free World": The Climate Justice Action Group of the BC Synod is hosting a webinar on November 6 at 6:30 pm on the subject of zero-waste and the actions we can all take towards the goal of a zero-waste world. The Special Presenter will be Jennifer Helman, Program Coordinator at the "Recycling Council of BC". See the poster that follows for all the details, and register here

Free Eco-cinema Event – November 5th at 6 pm: Please see the information on this link to an event happening at the Coquitlam Public library on November 5: <https://coquitlam.libnet.info/event/14510499>. "The Power of Big Oil" reveals the hidden truths behind the fossil fuel industry and explores how this powerful sector has intentionally misled the public and suppressed crucial climate science for decades, hindering meaningful action on climate change. See the poster that follows for more details.

Thanksgiving Food Drive: Thank you to all who donated food items to our Thanksgiving Food Drive. The Food Bank was very appreciative when receiving our non-perishable food to help restock their shelves.

All Saints Sunday: We will be celebrating All Saints Sunday this year on November 2nd. Starting this Sunday, you are invited to record the name of a loved one that passed away in the book of remembrance (on the podium just outside the Sanctuary entrance), who you wish to be named during the service. Please print legibly to avoid misspelling and mis-pronouncing your loved one's name, or you can call or email the office with the name of your loved one if that is more convenient for you, to have it will be added to the list of names. We also invite you to send a picture of your loved one if you have one, to be displayed during the remembrance time. Please send it to Pastor Eric directly at erickrushel@gmail.com in the largest format available.

ELCIC & CLWR Renew Call for Peace: On the second anniversary of the war between Israel and Hamas, Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada (ELCIC) National Bishop Larry Kochendorfer and Canadian Lutheran World Relief Interim Executive Director Rev. Dr. Michael Pryse write to the church with heavy hearts as they, "continue to call urgently for a cessation of all violence in Israel and Palestine, an immediate release of hostages, and unhindered humanitarian access to those in critical need." You can read the full letter here or on the bulletin board.

Indigenous Harvest Dinner: Mt. Zion Lutheran Church in New Westminster invites you to a hearty dinner of venison stew and bannock with donations going to the IRSSS on Saturday, October 25 from 4 pm to 7 pm. See the poster that follows, which is also on the church bulletin board.

Installation of Rev. Elina Singh TODAY!: Rev. Elina Singh will be installed at Dunbar Evangelical Lutheran Church (3491 W. 31st Avenue, Vancouver) on Sunday, October 19th at 2 pm., where she will work half time while she continues her half-time work at the Synod Office. Elina interned our church from 2020-2022. See page 16 for details. Maybe you can stay for our 65th Anniversary Celebration and then join in Elina's celebration afterwards.

ELCJHL Appeal: The ELCIC is launching an appeal to support the ministries of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jordan and the Holy Land (ELCJHL). Our goal is to raise $50,000. To read a letter about the appeal from National Bishop Susan Johnson, National Bishop-elect Larry Kochendorfer and Eastern Synod Bishop Carla Blakley, please click here.
