The Holy Spirit calls us together as the people of God

Welcome & Announcements & Land Acknowledgement

Confession and Forgiveness

P: Blessed be the holy Trinity, ☩ one God, who looks upon us in compassion,
forgives our sins,
and heals our lives.

C: Amen.

P: Let us turn in confession to the one who knows us completely.

Silence is kept for reflection on our sins

P: Mighty God, lover of justice,
C: you call us to life in community, but our vision of community excludes many, and especially those who make us uncomfortable.
We lie to ourselves and others about our prejudice and bias.
We sing, say, and pray the right words in church and among friends, but our hearts are far from you.
Turn us to seek your face.
Heal our thoughts, words, and actions that we may do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly with you, our God.
Amen.

P: As tender as a parent is to a child,
so deep is God's compassion for you.
As high as heaven is above earth,
so vast is God's love for you.
As far as east is from west,
so far does God remove your sin from you, renewing your life through Jesus Christ.
Blessed be God who crowns us with mercy and love.
C: Blessed be God forever.

Prayer of the Day

Word

God speaks to us in scripture reading, preaching, and song

Children's Time

First Reading: Micah 6:1-8

With the mountains and the foundations of the earth as the jury, God brings a lawsuit against Israel. God has "wearied" Israel with a long history of saving acts. God does not want or expect lavish sacrifices to attempt to earn divine favor. Rather God empowers the people to do justice, to love loyalty to God, and to walk shrewdly in God's service.

Hear what the Lord says:

Rise, plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice.

Hear, you mountains, the controversy of the Lord,
and you enduring foundations of the earth;
for the Lord has a controversy with his people, and he will contend with Israel.

'O my people, what have I done to you?

In what have I wearied you? Answer me!

For I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and redeemed you from the house of slavery;
and I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

O my people, remember now what King Balak of Moab devised, what Balaam son of Beor answered him,
and what happened from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the saving acts of the Lord.'

'With what shall I come before the Lord, and bow myself before God on high?

Shall I come before him with burnt-offerings, with calves a year old?

Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams, with tens of thousands of rivers of oil?

Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?'

He has told you, O mortal, what is good;

and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

P: The word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 15

Refrain:

L: O Lord, who may abide in your tent?
Who may dwell on your holy hill?

C: Refrain

L: Those who walk blamelessly, and do what is right, and speak the truth from their heart;
who do not slander with their tongue,
and do no evil to their friends,
nor take up a reproach against their neighbours;
in whose eyes the wicked are despised,
but who honour those who fear the Lord;
who stand by their oath even to their hurt;
who do not lend money at interest,
and do not take a bribe against the innocent.

C: Refrain

L: Those who do these things shall never be moved.

C: Refrain

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1:18-31

According to the world's standards of power and might, the message of the cross seems stupid and offensive. Yet this word reveals the paradoxical way God has chosen to work power and salvation through weakness, rejection, and suffering. Hence the message of the cross becomes true wisdom and power for believers.

For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For it is written,

'I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart.'

Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God decided, through the foolishness of our proclamation, to save those who believe. For Jews demand signs and Greeks desire wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling-block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.

Consider your own call, brothers and sisters: not many of you were wise by human standards, not many were powerful, not many were of noble birth. But God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise; God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong; God chose what is low and despised in the world, things that are not, to reduce to nothing things that are, so that no one might boast in the presence of God. He is the source of your life in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification and redemption, in order that, as it is written, 'Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord.'

P: The word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Verse

Al-le-lu - ia,      al - le-lu - ia,      al-le-lu - ia.
Repeat alleluia

Lord, to whom shall we go?      You have the words of e - ter - nal life.

P: The holy Gospel according to Matthew, the 5th chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

Gospel: Matthew 5:1-12

Jesus opens the Sermon on the Mount by naming those who are blessed in the reign of God..

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

‘Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

‘Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

‘Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

‘Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

‘Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

‘Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

‘Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called 'Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for the kingdom of heaven is theirs.'

‘Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you for my sake. For it is then a sign that you are my disciples.’

Rejoice. The reward of the righteous is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,

born of the virgin Mary,

suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;

he descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again;

he ascended into heaven,

he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,

the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen

Communion is distributed

Directions for Communion: Any adult or child who believes that Christ is present in this meal is welcome to participate. At the Pastor's direction, you are invited to advance to the communion rail through the centre aisle, commune and then exit back to your pews through the window aisles, depositing your used wine/juice vessel in the repository tray at the head of each window aisle. Please note that grape juice is offered in the three centre rings of the tray, and serving of the common cup of wine follows the serving tray. A common cup is also available if you prefer, and a gluten-free option is also available in lieu of bread. Just make your preferences known at the time of service. If you choose to remain in your pew to take communion, once all group communing at the rail has ended, please raise your hand to make yourself known and the pastor will come around with bread, followed by the communion assistants with individual glasses of wine and grape juice.

Hymns Sung During Communion

ELW # 700 – Bring Peace to Earth Again

How Blest Are Those

How blest are those who humbly see how much they need the Lord.
How blest are those who deeply grieve the suffering in this world.
How blest are those who find God's strength in gentleness and grace.
How blest are those who long for truth and seek God's loving ways.

What joy! When mercy fills our lives — when kindness is our style.
What joy! When — pure in heart — we strive to do what is worthwhile.
What joy! When people work for peace — for justice in this land.
What joy! When whole communities seek goodness, hand in hand.

When thousands join in peaceful song; when hundreds kneel and pray;
When one, alone, stands up to wrong; when love becomes our way;
When neighbors, by the things they do, reach out to those in pain;
Lord Jesus, may we learn anew the blessings of your reign.

ELCIC GLOBAL MISSION

Global mission is one way the ELCIC is able to grow and strengthen relationships with its partner churches. Through the lens of accompaniment, walking together in solidarity, we seek to actively listen to our partners and companions, share their joys and sorrows, and support them in their mission—just like they support us in ours.

Current church-to-church relationships

The ELCIC currently has three church-to-church relationships:

- (1) United Evangelical Lutheran Church, Argentina and Uruguay
- (2) Lutheran Church of Peru
- (3) Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jordan and the Holy Land

A student at the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jordan and the Holy Land's Environmental Education Center in Beit Jala, Palestine

Current partner churches

Our five synods also have relationships with partner churches:

- (A) Saskatchewan Synod: United Evangelical Lutheran Church, Argentina and Uruguay
- (B) British Columbia Synod: Lutheran Church of Peru
- (C) Eastern Synod: Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jordan and the Holy Land / Evangelical Lutheran Church in Guyana
- (D) Manitoba/Northwestern Ontario Synod: Evangelical Lutheran Church in Cameroon
- (E) Synod of Alberta and the Territories: Evangelical Lutheran Church of Colombia

GLOBAL MISSION—Partner Updates

José C. Paz classroom

Expanding education in José C. Paz

The United Evangelical Lutheran Church in Argentina and Uruguay has long prioritized education as a means of hope. With your support, Instituto Evangelico Americano—in José C. Paz, part of greater Buenos Aires, expanded to accommodate more children from underserved communities. Despite pandemic-related delays and economic challenges, three new classrooms were recently completed—offering life-changing opportunities for students and their families.

Lutheran Church of Peru in Iquitos

Nurturing children through faith and service

In Iquitos, Pastor Yoli and the Lutheran Church of Peru are offering a safe and welcoming space for children. Every Friday, Saturday and Sunday, kids come for meals, tutoring and spiritual support. Though the congregation itself faces financial hardships—unable to repair essential fans (necessary with temperatures sometimes surpass 40C)—their mission thrives.

Standing in solidarity amid crisis

The war between Israel and Hamas has greatly affected our partners in the ELCJHL. Most of them have relatives in Gaza. Restricted movement in the region has continued to impact people's ability to work and move freely resulting in huge financial implications for the church. Yet, despite everything, the ELCJHL remains steadfast in its mission: Congregations continue to gather in prayer and fellowship; The schools of the ELCJHL have successfully completed their 2024-25 academic year; Diaconal ministry is providing food, rent assistance, medical care and school tuition support to hundreds of families across the West Bank; and Gender justice and environmental ministries are still working towards a more just and sustainable future.

Our church's long-standing relationships with our Global Mission and Companion Synod partners are a vital expression of our shared faith and commitment to justice and peace.
