The Holy Spirit calls us together as the people of God

Welcome & Announcements & Land Acknowledgement

Confession and Forgiveness

P: Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God, whose compassion endures forever.

C: Amen.

P: Let us confess our sin to God.

Silence is kept for reflection.

P: Compassionate God,

C: we confess to you all our sins.

We feel the burdens of life,

and so turn to things for relief that leave us feeling ashamed and even more burdened.

We justify our failure to love our neighbours by telling ourselves someone else will care.

We are full of good intentions around deepening our faith but always find other things to do instead of giving you our time.

In all these ways and more we are trapped in sin and cannot free ourselves.

Please, in your mercy, call us back to you.

Give us a vision of what life can be in loving relationship with you, each other, and all creation.

Forgive us, renew us, and lead us by your Holy Spirit to walk in your ways and find our peace in you.

In Christ's name we pray,

Amen.

P: Jesus says, "Come to me,
all you who are weary
and are carrying heavy burdens,
and I will give you rest."

In the name of God,

Father, † Son, and Holy Spirit,

your sins are forgiven.
Rest in God's love.

C: Amen.

Gathering Song ELW # 858 - Praise to the Lord, the Almighty

Greeting

P: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
the love of God,
and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

C: And also with you.

Prayer of the Day

Word

God speaks to us in scripture reading, preaching, and song

Children's Time

First Reading: Hosea 5:15—6:6

Because the people have trusted in military powers and not God, God decides to withdraw from the scene until Israel acknowledges its guilt and seeks God's face. The response of the people does not acknowledge this guilt and is as fickle as fog or dew burned away quickly by the sun. God desires loyalty rather than words or meaningless deeds.

I will return again to my place until they acknowledge their guilt and seek my face.
In their distress they will beg my favour:

'Come, let us return to the Lord;
for it is he who has torn, and he will heal us;
he has struck down, and he will bind us up.

After two days he will revive us;
on the third day he will raise us up,
that we may live before him.

Let us know, let us press on to know the Lord;
his appearing is as sure as the dawn;
he will come to us like the showers,
like the spring rains that water the earth.'

What shall I do with you, O Ephraim?
What shall I do with you, O Judah?

Your love is like a morning cloud,
like the dew that goes away early.

Therefore I have hewn them by the prophets,
I have killed them by the words of my mouth,
and my judgement goes forth as the light.

For I desire steadfast love and not sacrifice,
the knowledge of God rather than burnt-offerings.

P: The word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 50:7-15

Refrain:

We are God's peo - ple and the sheep of God's pas - ture.

L: 'Hear, O my people, and I will speak,
O Israel, I will testify against you.
I am God, your God.
Not for your sacrifices do I rebuke you;
your burnt-offerings are continually before me.
I will not accept a bull from your house,
or goats from your folds.
For every wild animal of the forest is mine,
the cattle on a thousand hills.
I know all the birds of the air,
and all that moves in the field is mine.

C: Refrain

L: 'If I were hungry, I would not tell you,
for the world and all that is in it is mine.
Do I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?

C: Refrain

L: Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving, and pay your vows to the Most High.
Call on me in the day of trouble;
I will deliver you, and you shall glorify me.

C: Refrain

Second Reading: Romans 4:13-25

Paul presents Abraham as a living model of right relationships. For Abraham and for us, a right relationship with God involves trusting that God's promises will be fulfilled because God makes the dead alive and calls into existence what otherwise does not exist.

For the promise that he would inherit the world did not come to Abraham or to his descendants through the law but through the righteousness of faith. If it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. For the law brings wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there violation.

For this reason it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his descendants, not only to the adherents of the law but also to those who share the faith of Abraham (for he is the father of all of us, as it is written, 'I have made you the father of many nations')—in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist. Hoping against hope, he believed that he would become 'the father of many nations', according to what was said, 'So numerous shall your descendants be.' He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was already as good as dead (for he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah's womb. No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, being fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. Therefore his faith 'was reckoned to him as righteousness.' Now the words, 'it was reckoned to him', were written not for his sake alone, but for ours also. It will be reckoned to us who believe in him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, who was handed over to death for our trespasses and was raised for our justification.

P: The word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Verse

Al - le-lu - ia! Lord and Sav - ior: o - pen now your sav - ing word.

Let it burn like fire with - in us; speak un - til our hearts are stirred.

Al - le - lu - ia! Lord, we sing for the good news that you bring.

P: The holy Gospel according to Matthew, the 28th chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

Gospel Text: Matthew 9:9-13, 18-26

Jesus demonstrates God's mercy and power, accepting the unacceptable and curing the incurable. Even the dead receive new life.

As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, 'Follow me.' And he got up and followed him.

And as he sat at dinner in the house, many tax-collectors and sinners came and were sitting with him and his disciples. When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, 'Why does your teacher eat with tax-collectors and sinners?' But when he heard this, he said, 'Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. Go and learn what this means, "I desire mercy, not sacrifice." For I have come to call not the righteous but sinners.'

While he was saying these things to them, suddenly a leader of the synagogue came in and knelt before him, saying, 'My daughter has just died; but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live.' And Jesus got up and followed him, with his disciples. Then suddenly a woman who had been suffering from haemorrhages for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his cloak, for she said to herself, 'If I only touch his cloak, I will be made well.' Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, 'Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well.' And instantly the woman was made well. When Jesus came to the leader's house and saw the flute-players and the crowd making a commotion, he said, 'Go away; for the girl is not dead but sleeping.' And they laughed at him. But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got up. And the report of this spread throughout that district

P: The gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

Sermon

Hymn of the Day ELW # 607 - Come, Ye Disconsolate

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of Heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,

Songs Sung During Communion:

When Jesus Called to Matthew (Tune ELW # 654 - The Church's One Foundation)

When Jesus called to Matthew and told him, "Follow me,"
That tax collector listened and followed willingly.
He left his work behind him and changed his life that day;
For nothing could be better than living Jesus' way.

Where Jesus offered mercy, the Pharisees saw sin;
"They said, "He welcomes sinners and even eats with them."
Yet Jesus knew God's table should be a welcome place;
To Matthew and to others, he offered words of grace.

We wonder what he witnessed — what Matthew heard and saw.
Did Jesus' teaching leave him in wonder and in awe?
As Matthew heard Christ preaching, as Matthew went to serve,
Did he recall forgiveness that he did not deserve?

When Jesus called to Matthew and told him, "Follow me,"
The Lord was busy building a new community.
He built a church that centered on wonderful surprise:
God's reign is one of welcome! God's welcome changes lives!

Farewell to Building

On June 22nd @ 10:00 AM a "Leaving Service" will be held at Peace Lutheran Church as the property transfers to new ownership on June 25th. After the service, a celebratory lunch will be held.

This marks the final gathering in the church hall before the sale is finalized. It's a bittersweet moment, filled with both nostalgia and excitement for what lies ahead. As friends and clergy come together, the hall will buzz with laughter and warmly illuminated memories. A sense of celebration will envelop the space, as we honor the countless joyful occasions held here over the past years. We invite you to share stories that will echo past events and linger fondly in every corner.

This last meeting is more than a farewell; it is also a celebration of new beginnings as we continue our discernment sessions to discover where God is guiding our congregation in the upcoming months.
