Thanksgiving, Lament and Absolution

- P: In the beginning, the Spirit of God hovered over the waters.
And God called them good.
- C: Come Holy Spirit and cleanse the waters.
- P: The prophet saw a river flowing from the Temple,
and wherever the river flowed, everything lived.
- C: Come Holy Spirit and renew the face of the Earth.
- P: Jesus cried out,
“Let anyone who is thirsty come to me...
Out of the believer’s heart shall flow rivers of living water.”
- C: Come, Holy Spirit and heal your people.
- P: Almighty and ever living God, we thank you for your love in all creation, and especially for your gift of water to sustain and cleanse all life.
But we also lament that we have neglected this gift, and taken the waters for granted.
- P: Rivers run polluted.
- C: Oceans choke with plastic.
Marine life disappears from warming seas.
Coral reefs fade and fisheries collapse.
- P: The seas rise and swallow coasts.
- C: Storms grow stronger.
Floods destroy homes.
Drought cracks the Earth and children thirst.
- P: We confess that we have not guarded your waters.
- C: We have consumed water without restraint.
We have polluted what you called good.
We have forgotten that the river of life flows from your throne.
- P: Forgive us and convert our hearts O God.
- C: Forgive us and convert our hearts O God.
- P: Where we have treated water as a commodity,

- C: teach us to receive it as a sacred gift.
- P: Where we have consumed without thought,
- C: teach us simplicity.
- P: Where we have used water without reverence,
- C: teach us to protect it as a gift entrusted to every generation.
- P: Where we have been silent and tolerant of injustice
- C: make us courageous protectors and advocates of all waters.
- P: God's mercy flows like living water. So hear the good news:
God knows you,
forgives you by the self-giving of † Jesus Christ,
and frees you to love the world as you have been loved.
- C: Amen.

Prayer of the Day

Word

God speaks to us in scripture reading, preaching, and song

Children's Time

First Reading: Ezekiel 33:7-11

God appointed Ezekiel as a sentinel for the house of Israel. Ezekiel must faithfully convey God's warnings to the people. Remarkably, God—who is about to attack Jerusalem—gives a warning with the hope that repentance will make the attack unnecessary.

So you, mortal, I have made a sentinel for the house of Israel; whenever you hear a word from my mouth, you shall give them warning from me. If I say to the wicked, 'O wicked ones, you shall surely die', and you do not speak to warn the wicked to turn from their ways, the wicked shall die in their iniquity, but their blood I will require at your hand. But if you warn the wicked to turn from their ways, and they do not turn from their ways, the wicked shall die in their iniquity, but you will have saved your life.

Now you, mortal, say to the house of Israel, Thus you have said: 'Our transgressions and our sins weigh upon us, and we waste away because of them; how then can we live?' Say to them, As I live, says the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from their ways and live; turn back, turn back from your evil ways; for why will you die, O house of Israel?

P: The word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 119:33-40

Refrain:

Lord, send out your Spir-it, and re - new the face of the earth!

L: Teach me, O Lord, the way of your statutes,
and I will observe it to the end.
Give me understanding, that I may keep your law
and observe it with my whole heart.
Lead me in the path of your commandments,
for I delight in it.

C: Refrain

L: Turn my heart to your decrees,
and not to selfish gain.
Turn my eyes from looking at vanities;
give me life in your ways.
Confirm to your servant your promise,
which is for those who fear you.

C: Refrain

L: Turn away the disgrace that I dread,
for your ordinances are good.
See, I have longed for your precepts;
in your righteousness give me life.

C: Refrain

Second Reading: Romans 13:8-14

The obligation of Christians is to love one another and so fulfill the heart and goal of the law. Clothes make the person as we “put on the Lord Jesus Christ” and live today in light of the future God has in store for us.

Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments, ‘You shall not commit adultery; You shall not murder; You shall not steal; You shall not covet’; and any other commandment, are summed up in this word, ‘Love your neighbour as yourself.’ Love does no wrong to a neighbour; therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law.

Besides this, you know what time it is, how it is now the moment for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we became believers; the night is far gone, the day is near. Let us then lay aside the works of darkness and put on the armour of light; let us live honourably as in the day, not in revelling and drunkenness, not in debauchery and licentiousness, not in quarrelling and jealousy. Instead, put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

P: The word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Verse

Al - le-lu - ia! Lord and Sav - ior: o - pen now your sav-ing word.

Let it burn like fire with-in us; speak un - til our hearts are stirred.

Al - le - lu - ia! Lord, we sing for the good news that you bring.

P: The holy Gospel according to Matthew, the 18th chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

Gospel Text: Matthew 18:15-20

Jesus offers practical advice to his disciples on how individuals—and the church as a whole—should go about restoring relationships when one member has sinned against another.

‘If another member of the church sins against you, go and point out the fault when the two of you are alone. If the member listens to you, you have regained that one. But if you are not listened to, take one or two others along with you, so that every word may be confirmed by the evidence of two or three witnesses. If the member refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if the offender refuses to listen even to the church, let such a one be to you as a Gentile and a tax-collector. Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven. Again, truly I tell you, if two of you agree on earth about anything you ask, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven. For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them.'

P: The gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

Affirmation of Faith

We believe in God, who creates all things,
who embraces all things, who celebrates all things,
who is present in every part of the fabric of creation.
We believe in God as the source of all life,
who baptizes this planet with living water.

We believe in Jesus Christ, seen in the suffering one,
the poor one, the malnourished one,
the climate refugee - who loves and cares for this world and suffers with it.

And we believe in Jesus Christ, the seed of life,
who came to reconcile and renew this world
and everything in it.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the breath of God,
who moves with God
and who moves among and with us today.

We believe in everlasting life in God.

And we believe in the hope that one day God will put an end to death and all destructive forces.

Prayers of Intercession

Sharing of the Peace

P: The peace of Christ be with you always.

Next Sunday IS Rally Sunday!: Our tradition of celebrating Rally Sunday with a service outside (weather permitting) happens next Sunday. If the weather permits, we hope to celebrate under our canopy of trees so bring a lawn chair with you, and maybe even a spare to share. Friends of Creation – Lake Chad Fundraising Page: In advance of the Season of Creation that begins next month for 5 weeks, our church has initiated an online CLWR Friends of Creation – Lake Chad fundraising initiative. CLWR has kindly set up a specific on-line fundraising page for our church, which launches our goal to raise $5,000 (100 acres at $50 each) to help remediate the area that was formerly the Lake Chad lake basin, which has severely diminished in size due to global warming. Our GSLC online donation page is accessible by clicking here, or via the QR code on the poster that follows. If your preference would be to donate cash or a cheque towards this initiative, we have special envelopes available for that purpose as well. Donations can be anonymous or else you can opt to show your name next to your donation amount – the choice is up to you! As the Season of Creation is almost here, we welcome your support through the launch our “CLWR - Friends of Creation” fundraising page. Donate once or donate as often as the Spirit moves you. See the bulletin board for more info. If using envelopes, please make your cheques payable to CLWR.

Please consider dropping off a box of cereal (or instant oatmeal packets) to help fill this need for children, families, and also for seniors. Statistics show that today, one in three Foodbank visitors is a child--- hungry for nourishment, hope and a better future. There is a bin in the Narthex for this purpose.

With Gratitude,
From Your Outreach Team

Something of note: SHARE Foodbank is now accredited through Foodbanks Canada's Standard of Excellence Program!

CLWR Nepal Appeal: On August 26th, a sudden and devastating flood swept through communities in northern Nepal, destroying homes, roads and bridges, and leaving families in urgent need of help. The disaster began when a suspected glacial lake outburst flood surged into Nepal's Bhote Koshi River before rushing downstream through six districts. Please keep the people of Nepal and the rescue teams in your prayers. CLWR is responding and asks for your help. Please consider making an emergency gift today to help families affected by the floods in Nepal. Please donate at www.clwr.org/nepal-floods or call 1-800-661-2597.

A Prayer for the Start of a New School Year

As backpacks are packed, classrooms prepared, and a new school year begins, we hold in prayer all who are stepping into this season of learning, growing, teaching, and becoming.

God of wisdom, wonder, and boundless love,

Be with every child and young person beginning a new school year. May they enter their classrooms knowing they are beloved exactly as they are. Give them curiosity to learn, courage to ask questions, friendships that bring joy, and communities where they feel safe, seen, celebrated, and valued.

Bless the teachers, educators, counselors, administrators, bus drivers, cafeteria workers, coaches, and school staff who care for students each day. Give them patience, creativity, compassion, and the resources they need to nurture every learner.

Be with parents, guardians, caregivers, and families as they encourage, support, worry, celebrate, pack lunches, navigate schedules, and walk alongside their young people.

May our schools be places where every student—of every race, ability, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, ethnic identity and language—knows they belong.

When the year feels overwhelming, grant rest.
When someone feels alone, bring connection.
When injustice appears, give us courage to speak and act.
When there is joy, help us celebrate abundantly.

Holy One, go with all who begin this new school year. Surround them with love, guide them with wisdom, and remind them each day:

You are beloved. You are seen. You belong.

Amen.
